PROSPECTUS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA STATESMAN.

THE undersigned propose, on the first day of January next, at Raleigh, North Carolina, to begin the publication of the North Carolina Statesman, a semi-weekly and weekly paper, devoted to politics, news, and miscellaneous subjects, and respectfully solicit for it a share of the patronage of the democratic party, their friends, and the public.

respectfully solicit for it a share of the patronage of the democratic party, their friends, and the public.

Invited by many leading persons of the State rights republican party to propagate and defend principles which we have always held, and regard as the only basis of prosperity in our form of government, and inspired with a sincere desire to serve that party and advance its interests, we propose to issue a paper at the seat of the State government. In the field of editorial enterprise, there is ample room for those who are now holding position, as well as for others, who choose to enter into fair competition. The propagation of the principles of our party is a duty at once important, and to us peculiarly agreeable. The attractions of the editorial profession and its honorable toils, together with a desire to extend its influence, has had much weight in the decision which we have made—a profession at once dignified and elevated, where the highest intellectual gifts may find full employment, and the purest patriotism make contribution to the public weal. We are persuaded that a journal, conducted with fairness and discretion—uninfluenced by selfishness and devoted to principle, may secure sufficient patronage, without interfering with the claims or rights of any now prosecuting the same great work.

Although mainly devoted to the discussion of such political questions, as they arise, which affect the welfare of North Carolina, whether relating to the federal or State governments, or such local interests as may be of importance, it is nevertheless intended to make the Statesman a medium of general intelligence. Accordingly, the state of the markets in the principal cities, to which our commerce goes, shall be fully and accurately reported; nor will the attention of the conductors be less addressed to the subject of internal improvements, as a means indispensable to the development of the mineral and agricultural resources of the State. These interests, of primary importance, shall always command their fullest they propose to and carefully selected and original literary matter. Being strictly conservative, they propose to avail themselves of all the lights of ex-perience, in that progress, which promises the ad-vancement of the interests of North Carolina.

propose to avail themselves of all the lights of experience, in that progress, which promises the advancement of the interests of North Carolina.

The general objects of the proposed paper being thus clearly indicated, it may not be amiss briefly to state the particular views which are to be sustained by it as a political journal.

Ist. Our purpose being to publish a paper purely democratic, according to the straightest requirements of that party, we shall advocate strict party organization in its fullest and most comprehensive sense; an organization which originates in the popular will, expressed by the people in their primary assemblies, and which has been so successfully introduced among the democracy of many of the ether States, by which the rank and file of the party are, in fact, those who indicate its decisions, and, being all brought into action, express their will imperatively; thus, by open and fair dealing, commanding respect and obedience; an organization of the people, and not of intriguers; restoring power to those who, by sufferance, have tolerated its temporary usurpation.

2d. The democratic party shall always find in us advocates of their right to select their standard bearers, and to command acquiescence in decisions made by conventions fairly elected in their primary meetings. Standing upon the good old State rights platform of '98, we shall oppose government corporations created by Congress for the purpose of internal improvement, the regulation of finance, or any other measure inconsistent with the rights of the States.

3d. Believing that the platform adopted by the late Baltimore convention contains the democratic creed, they expect cordially to sustain the present administration, trusting that the policy adopted by those who compose it will be regulated by the cardinal doctrines of the American democracy.

4th. They will advocate all such measures of internal improvement as promise by judicious prosecution to promote the interests of the people and diffuse the benefits of a system alrea

P. W. BROWNING, Merchant Tallor, under the United States Hotel, having enlarged and improved his store, would now respectfully call the attention of citizens, and strangers visiting Washington, to his well-selected stock of French and English cloths, cassimeres, and vestings, of the newest and most elegant styles of goods from the New York market.

Having had twenty years' experience in the purchase of goods from the best importing houses in the United States, with such advantages as will enable him to offer them to the public on such terms as will give entire satisfaction to the purchasers, and, in view of increasing his business, he has purchased an unusual large stock of goods, such as will defy competition for their beauty, style, and cheapness.

All he asks is a call before you purchase else where, and he will convince you that you will save your money by so doing. A suit of clothes can be made up in the most elegant style at twelve hours' notice.

PATENT GAS REGULATOR.—The inventor (Dr. Kidder) of this economical and useful instrument deserves the thanks of the gasconsuming community. The saving effected by the use of it will be found fully 25 per cent. in every person's gas bill. It can be so adjusted as to supply the gas at any desired pressure less than that of the street, and when once adjusted, the Regulator will continue to supply the gas at that pressure uniformly, without requiring further care or attention, and independent of all the fluctuations of the street pressure. An additional advantage obtained by this Regulator is a light of a more agreeable quality, in place of the bluish white color of the ordinary gas light, occasioned by the high pressure at which the gas is consumed. As an evidence of its practical utility, it is now in operation in some of the principal hotels and large stores in New York city, who all bear favorable testimony to its value. It has also received the united commendations of the press.

Hotel proprietors and storekeepers in the city of Washington and its vicinity, desirous to avail themselves of the economiser, can obtain all further information by calling on the subscriber, who has fitted one of these Regulators up in his store, and will give an illustration of it.

A NEW THING ENTIRELY.—The most astonishing performance heard of! Barrels, firkins, kegs, and all description of cooper-work, made and finished, without a defect, air-tight, and smooth enough to varnish, entirely by machinery.

The timber is taken in the bolt, the staves are sawed hollowing, and with the grain, cut of a uniform length, dressed perfectly smooth in and outside, of a uniform thickness, jointed with perfect accuracy, each having its proportionate bilge according to its width, and the strength of each fully tested; the cask is howelled, chamfered, croase cut, heads turned, and the whole prepared for the hooping process in a manner so perfect, complete, and superior a finish, that we challenge the world to produce the equal, and that at the rate of from two hundred to three hundred per dayto each machine. By this process, all casks can be made, from the smallest white-lead keg, to the largest size cask in general use; all of which, can be warranted to hold the most subtle fluids, or adapted to the packing of any description of goods. In fact, the machinery cannot make an imperfect article, unless the fault is exclusively in the timber.

Persons desirous of purchasing the right to use this machinery in the States of Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky, Missouri, or the eastern half of Pennsylvania, can obtain any information by applying to the subscriber at Washington City, D. C., who is sole proprietor for that portion of territory, under an assignment from Wm. Trapp, the patentee.
